For pricing on the various membership categories listed below, please contact the Matheson Team at 888-656-4830.

- Resident Memberships are open to residents of the Rio Verde community. These memberships are voting and perpetual. New resident members will be granted one-half price dues for a year and a $2,500 credit for Golf Shop and Food and Beverage charges when the full membership initiation fee is paid up-front.
- Nonresident Memberships are full memberships held by golfers not residing in Rio Verde. These members have paid the initiation fee and pay annual dues. These memberships are voting and perpetual. New, nonresident members will be granted one-half price dues for a year and a $2,500 credit for Golf Shop and Food and Beverage charges when the full membership initiation fee is paid up-front.
- Associate Memberships are held by golfers who are not residents of Rio Verde. Associate memberships are nonvoting and must be renewed annually. Associate members do not pay an initiation fee, but pay annual dues.
- Family Associate Memberships are for families in which the oldest person is less than 55 years of age. Family Associate Members and their dependent children can play golf with tee times made one day in advance. This membership is nonvoting and must be renewed annually. These members do not pay an initiation fee. The Family Association Membership is not available to residents of the Verdes communities.
- Four Month Memberships are for a period of four consecutive months in any fiscal year and can be tailored to an individual's schedule. It allows a couple the golfing privileges of regular membership including playing in Men's Golf Association (MGA), Women's Golf Association (WGA), Couple's Golf Association (CGA) and Niners' events and participating in all Club activities. This membership class is not available to permanent or temporary residents of the Verdes communities.

- A One-Week Renter Pass can be purchased by renters in the Verdes for $200 and can be used for unlimited golf. The pass is limited to one week only and cannot be used with other RVCC golf promotion.
